3. Public Comments- There were none.
4. Training/Information Sharing/Coordination Opportunities- It was announced that Cripple Creek would be hosting a PASS training.
5. 2018 Transit Service Improvement Plan- Mr. Jacob Matsen, Mountain Metro Transit, explained that the Transit Services Division is soliciting feedback on the potential 2018 Transit Service Plan, which includes improvements to several existing routes as well as other alternatives which were highlighted.
6. Bylaw Review -The committee made suggestions to change the mobility definition to what the Board approved in the 2045 Long Range Transportation Plan to better align with the region’s definition and to include conference calling and see if that increases attendance instead of removing absenteeism. Mr. Hyde made a motion to recommend the changes for approval, seconded by Ms. Sharon Brown. The motion carried unanimously.
7. Medicaid Transportation Subcommittee Topics- Committee members shared challenges their respective agencies are facing with funding rides in the community. There was a suggestion to petition to the PPACG Board to help with this issue.
8. Action Items for Next MCC Meeting: SB17-11 update, federal funding update, Driver Recognition Awards
9. Adjournment- Ms. Gail Nehls adjourned the meeting at 10:34 p.m.
