

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study was prepared under contract with the Pikes Peak Area Council of Governments (PPACG) with financial support from the Office of Economic Adjustment, Department of Defense. The content of this document reflects the views of PPACG and does not necessarily reflect the views of the Office of Economic Adjustment.

This document serves as an ongoing framework for local government and military strategies necessary to enhance compatibility around the Air Force Academy, Fort Carson, Peterson Air Force Base, Schriever Air Force Base and Cheyenne Mountain Air Force Station and improve quality of life in the surrounding communities.

PPACG would like to thank OEA Program Managers Cyrena Eitler and Rick Solander for their collaboration and support throughout this process.

PPACG also thanks the dedicated members of the JLUS Policy and Technical Committees, including Policy Committee Chair Darryl Glenn and Technical Committee Chair Greg Dorman for their leadership in this effort. We are deeply grateful to the numerous community members who participated in many working groups which helped to develop the findings and recommendations found in this study.

PPACG STAFF

Andrew Gunning, Executive Director

Brian Potts, JLUS Program Manager

Ann Werner, JLUS Planner II

Jessica McMullen, Policy and Communication Manager

Jenny Lines, Web/Publications Coordinator

PPACG also thanks former staff members for their contributions, including Angela Essing, Rob MacDonald, Rachel Beck, and Tom Miller

PROJECT SUPPORT

PPACG also acknowledges the support of the consultant team from HB&A, Tetra Tech, and Bachman PR who provided public engagement, communications, and other technical support throughout the study process.